

Improvement

We incorporated the connection board to enhance security and data availability. While this implementation brings notable benefits, it's important to acknowledge that there might be some latency introduced due to the Picos not being directly connected to the server.

Before:

Architecture

After:

Architecture

